Dear cycling enthusiast, please read the following rental contract carefully before going out on your adventure to protect your rights:

1. The lessee hereby consents to the lessor collecting, processing, and using all personal data provided for the purpose of executing this contract and any related purposes.

- In accordance with the "Personal Data Protection Act," the personal data provided by the lessee includes the following: Full name, cell phone number, ID number, valid photo ID, and any other personal information listed on the leasing contract.
- In accordance with the "Specific Purposes of the Personal Data Protection Act and Categories of Personal Data", the collection of personal data is conducted to serve the following purposes: (069) matters pertaining to contracts, similar contracts, or other legal relationships; (063) collection, processing, and utilization of personal data by NGOs according to legal obligations; (090) consumer and customer management and service; (135) information (communication) services; (136) information (communication) and database management; (137) information security and management; (157) surveys, statistics, and research analysis; and (181) other businesses conforming to the business scope or articles of association as registered.
- In accordance with applicable laws and regulations within Taiwan (ROC)

2. Lessee or user of the bike should decide on the appropriate routes, travel times, rest stops, etc. according to their own physical condition, cycling skills, and experience on the road, so as to ensure personal safety. The lessee must personally operate the bike only on roads that comply with Chapter 5 of Taiwan's Regulations Governing Road Traffic Safety. If the lessee allows a third party to use the bike, they are responsible for ensuring that the third party has the necessary skills to ride the bike, is familiar with safety precautions and usage instructions, as well as can operate the bike in a correct and safe manner. If there is anything abnormal about the bike, the user should stop using the bike immediately and notify the lessor as soon as possible.
3. The transportation of additional passengers, overloading, and carrying dangerous and damaging items is strictly prohibited. These items include the following, and do not exclude extenuating circumstances:
 - Hazardous items banned by Taiwanese laws and regulations
 - Items that are dirty or likely to stain the bike, such as paint
 - Toddlers, babies, & animals that are unsuitable for transportation on a bike
 - Other items that do not meet the regulations stipulated by Article 122 of the Regulations Governing Road Traffic Safety in Taiwan.
 - Overloading is prohibited. The weight of items transported cannot exceed 20kg, except for the carbon bikes, where the limit is 10kg
4. When using the bike, the lessee or user should comply with the regulations set out in the section about slow-moving vehicles in Article 3 of Road Traffic Management and Penalty Act, and those set out in the section about slow-moving vehicles in Article 5 of Road Traffic Safety Regulations.
5. During the rental period, for any incidents caused by the lessee or user of the bike that incur penalty, the payment should be borne by the lessee or user.
6. Lessee or user of the bike should be responsible for safekeeping the bike during the rental period. Actions like re-selling, pledging, and pawning the bike are forbidden.
7. Throughout the rental period, the bike, along with its parts and accessories, is under the lessee's care, and they are fully responsible for any damage or loss.
 - If the bike is lost during the rental period, or if there is any incident involving the bike that causes injury, death, or property damage to the lessee, user, or any third party, the lessee or user shall, where circumstances permit, immediately report the incident to the police and notify the lessor, and the lease shall cease thereafter. The lessee or user shall bear all legal liability and be responsible for any towing fees, repair costs, depreciation in bike value, and any other damages, in addition to the standard compensation. The compensation amount borne by the lessee, user, or third party is specified in Item No. 8 and in the list of rental items under "Unit Price". Additional charges may apply if the bike is returned in an unacceptable condition.
 - If the bike is damaged, lost, stolen, or otherwise unavailable for return, the lessee shall additionally remain liable for rental charges during the period required for repair, replacement, or non-return. Such charges shall be calculated at 90% of the daily rental rate for the first ten (10) days, 80% of the daily rental rate for days eleven (11) to fifteen (15), and 70% of the daily rental rate thereafter, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days.
 - In the event of a breach of the contract, the lessor retains the right to terminate the lease and demand payment from the lessee for the rental period during which the bike was utilized. In addition, the lessor may seek compensation from the lessee for any supplementary damages. The lessee shall bear full legal responsibility for any liabilities arising from their misconduct.
8. Compensation amount for the aforementioned situation is as follows and not higher than the cost of the bike:
Trigon HC-01: NT$100,000 per bike Standard Road Bike: NT$40,000 per bike

Merida Explorer: NT$15,000 per bike Gravel Bike: NT$80,000 per bike
9. The rental fee is only for rental service, lessee or user of the bike is responsible for purchasing personal/travel insurance. A comprehensive insurance package provided by the lessor is not available in Taiwan.
10. Refund and cancellation policy:

Up to 1 month before agreed rental time	full refund
Between 4 and 2 weeks before agreed rental time	half refund
72hours before agreed rental time	possibility to change dates

- In the event of government-declared force majeure events such as natural disasters (e.g., typhoons, earthquakes, and transport interruptions), which prevent the rental from proceeding, the lessee: If the rental period has already commenced, the lessee shall contact the lessor immediately and the days announced as 'typhoon days' or other by the government, can be refunded or rescheduled upon agreement.
- Please note that after the the dates have been confirmed, and the reservation has been made, we do not offer a refund for earlier return once the rental period has commenced.

11. The bike(s) is(are) to be returned to the lessor at the end of the rental period specified in Item No. 1, at a prearranged time. If there is any change of time or location, the lessee should notify the lessor no less than 24 hours before the agreed time. If the lease needs to be extended, the lessor has to be informed and consent to the extension, so that then the rental will be adjusted accordingly. If the lessee fails to show up at the agreed time and location without notifying the lessor, an administrative cost of NT$1,000 and respective overdue charges will be processed accordingly. If the lessee fails to return the bike as agreed, and does not notify the lessor, and remains unreachable for more than 3 days, the lessee will be deemed to have consented to the purchase of the bike at its value (c.f. Item 8) & the rental of the first three days must still be paid. The lessor reserves the right to claim the total amount owed from the lessor.

12. If the bike incurs any damage to the frame, the renter must compensate the amount to have it fixed. Heavy scratches more than 5cm will incur a NT$4,000 charge on carbon bikes.

13. If the bike falls on its side, be aware the rear derailleur can be heavily damaged and will cause further damage unless fixed promptly. If there is any damage to the parts - tires, derailleur, etc. the lessor will charge 30% - 100% of pertained damage. If the bike had to be repaired by another shop, please keep the receipt, and bring it upon return.

By paying the rental fee, the lessee acknowledges that they have read, understood, and agreed to the terms and conditions of this rental agreement.
